The ITC and the Fair Trade Commission agreed on Thursday to boost the prices for some types of fresh cocoa in their cocoa supply agreement, a move that could further exacerbate the cocoa price premium in major cocoa exporters like Côte d'Ivoire. The import tariff of the ITC's tariff schedule is at 6 percent for 100-percent pure cocoa, 2 percent for 80 percent pure cocoa, and 0.5 percent for 50 percent pure cocoa. For Côte d'Ivoire, however, the import tariff is at 1 percent for 100-percent pure cocoa, 0.5 percent for 80 percent pure cocoa, and 0.1 percent for 50 percent pure cocoa. The Fair Trade Commission, the agency mandated by the Cocoa and Chocolate Industry Code to enforce the codes, will be able to buy up to 300,000 metric tons more cocoa from cocoa suppliers in Côte d'Ivoire and Ghana for 2016/17, according to an agreement reached by the agencies, which comes into force from Jan. 1. The cocoa price premium in Côte
