Sonia visits him in the hospital and takes care of him. She then introduces him to an underworld don, Vikram, who gets impressed with Vipin's presence of mind and proves to be a dear friend. Vipin falls in love with Sonia and they plan to get married. In a twist of fate, Vipin's friend, a young lawyer, lives opposite his house and is engaged to Sonia. Vipin comes to know that Sonia is a drug addict and is being lured by the underworld don. Vipin is worried about Sonia's health and visits her in a very heavy downpour and comes to know that Sonia is being used as a drug mule by a narcotics squad. When he tries to tell Sonia about it, she is rude to him and leaves the house. A disturbed Vipin tries to find Sonia but she does not return. He then calls Vikram and warns him that Sonia is a drug addict. Vikram tries to help Vipin but the police arrest him and he also falls into their hands. Vipin, now free, comes to know that Sonia has been arrested for drug possession and it is the truth. He requests Vikram to help him out in getting Sonia out of jail and offer him a share in his family's business. Vikram is stunned and does not want to do anything to help Vipin and asks him to meet Sonia in jail. Vipin cannot bear the fact that Sonia has been arrested and goes to the jail to see her but he is shocked to see that Sonia has been assaulted by the jailor. Vipin is upset that Sonia is being beaten up in the jail and he hits the jailor. He is taken into custody, but he escapes and kills the jailor who was the mastermind behind Sonia's arrest. Vipin then gets hold of a gun from the dead jailor and is free. He now realises that the police were looking for him in connection with a murder case. Vikram is hiding in a house, behind the back of the police and is hiding Vipin's gun. Vikram finds out that Vipin has a criminal background and the police are tracking him down. He knows that
