I am working on an application that allows a user to click a button to confirm a box. I am adding a href="" to the div inside the button, so that the user can delete the contents and the page will go back. Even though I added target="" to the href, the W3C still ignores the anchor tag. HTML: This is a test for the W3C. It shouldn't ignore me... click me 3e33713323
